

Monday July 2, 2007
The Capistrano Dispatch

DAILY NEWS BLAST

Recall Resumes

Jonathan Volzke
Editor, (949) 248-2296

New recall papers today were served on the four senior members of the Capistrano Unified School District. The trustees, meeting in special session to consider a pay raise for the interim superintendent, accepted the papers without public comment. Recall proponents said the district's new budget, which cuts teachers and increases class sizes, was the "the last straw."

More will be sent as it becomes available.

This has been a daily news blast from The Capistrano Dispatch. The blasts are delivered once daily Monday through Friday. Forward this to your friends, and tell them to sign up at <http://www.thecapistranodispatch.com>